

My name is DIVANA Mulla am a girl age 16 i live in Shikwase with my family we are 2 in family my younger sister and my self. my father died in 1990 when i was 1 year 5 months and when my father died my mother dont work so i started schooling at a Community school until i reached grade 2. Its when i went to at a basic school in grade 9, that is last year. my mother tried and tried to support me till she failed to pay my school fees and exam fees - and from that year i have never went back to school again. I am happy, to day for (A.Y.C) for supporting me. I thank you very much i wasn't thought that i will go to school again but through you. God sent to help me am very happy again once more. And am happy for Amos youth centre and for now am a member of this group. I even enjoy the lessons the teach they and i promise not to disappoint u. not to for get to thank u for the food we had. Amos youth centre last meeting.

Divana Mulla